

Letter #18

New York Nov 6 1854

Dear Father

Date:

11/6/1854

Place:

New York

We sail to day, on Steamer "George Law," which connects at the isthmus with the John L. Stevens. We are well & Chittenden has found 2 or 3 old Californians with whom we shall go in company.

From:

H.H. Fassett

To:

Father

Business is good here at present & Wall street feeling better than a few months since.

Broadway is as thronged every day but Sunday as if they had some "State fair."

I have been to see several places of note among which is the "Crystal Palace," Brookly hights Exchange, Washingtons old head quarters & many others. Chit sends by B W Brooks of Columbus 3 Dagaureotypes the largest one for Mother, & one for Aunt Sallie & Aunt Delia. It is quite cool here & he needs your overcoat so takes it along.

Breakfast is ready & I must close. will write at the isthmus. Love to all, excuse Chit, To dark to see the lines And we are so busy have no time to write more. Uncle Elias' folks all well.

*Yours Truly
H. H. Fassett*
